Office of Teacher Education
TEACHERS CHANGE THE WORLD — ONE STUDENT AT A TIME!
Unfilled Positions Across Illinois

2017 = 2,013
• Problem of Practice Approach to Ongoing Analysis of Data
• Developmental Pre-Student Teaching Clinical Evaluation Rubric
• Deepening our P-12 Partnerships
• Authentic Clinical Sites
OTE Core Values and Commitments

Relationship
Create meaningful connections every day with P-12 school faculty and staff.
Demonstrate professional integrity through respectful interactions.

Excellence
Promote evidence-based teaching practices.

Accountability
Set high expectations and measurable goals.
Prepare educators for successful teaching careers that positively impact student learning.

Collaboration
Develop solutions together than accomplish targeted goals.

Personalized Learning
Use a developmental approach supported by coaching and feedback.
Make candidate-centered decisions that are sustained over time.
OTE Core Values and Commitments

Relationship

Collaboration
Co-Constructing Clinical Preparation

• Strong clinical preparation of teachers is key to student success.
• It impacts our ability to compete in a global economy and participate in a pluralistic democratic society.
• Real partnerships are mutually beneficial.
Clinical Partners across Southern Illinois and in the Chicago Area

- SIU - On Campus
- University Center at Lake County
- Rend Lake Market Place
For more on what we do, visit us at ehs.siu.edu/tep