Curriculum and Instruction
Current CI Programs and Enrollment

- Child and Family Studies
- Early Childhood Education
- Elementary Education
- History Education
- Biology Education

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Undergraduates</th>
<th>Master’s Students</th>
<th>Doctorate Students</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>323</td>
<td>53</td>
<td>79</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
PhD
Graduate
Students
CI PhD Graduates
23 Officers with Professional Organizations

- National Association for Research in Science Teaching Equity and Ethics
- National Council on Family Relations
- Council for the Educator Professionals
- Association of Teacher Educators
- Sports Science Research Foundation
- Illinois Council on Family Relations
- Illinois Council of Teachers’ of Mathematics
- Illinois Association of Teacher Educators
- Illinois State Historical Society
- Trail of Tears Association
Editorial Boards - Professional Journals
Active Partnerships

- NASA- Eclipse Planning Committee
- Illinois State Board of Education
- Illinois Migrant Council
- Rebound
- Local and regional school districts
- College of Science
- Department of Chemistry
- Department of Mathematics
- Department of Zoology
Other Impacts

• Grants = $12,760,673
• Scholarships awarded to students in 2015-2016 = $84,138
• 470+ students engaged in internships or community projects
• 207 students engaged in faculty research activities (publications and conference presentations)
Opportunities and Resources

Given our Community Assets how can we reimagine:

- Partnerships
- Collaborations
- Professional Development Opportunities

... to be innovators in Southern Illinois and beyond?