

Middle Level Endorsement Courses

Summer 2017 – Offered at two locations

CI 462 Middle and Junior High School Programs. Focuses on the development of middle and junior high school curriculum and the identification of instructional activities for early adolescents*. Emphasis is placed on development of literacy strategies, developmentally appropriate teaching strategies, interdisciplinary unit planning, teaming, and technologies and materials appropriate for teaching early adolescents, ages 10-14. Prerequisite: EDUC 313 or consent of instructor.

Rend Lake College Marketplace:

May 15th—25th
Monday– Thursday 4:30– 9:30 pm

Carbondale Campus:

June 12th—July 6th
Monday - Thursday 9:50—Noon

473 Teaching in Middle Level Schools. Acquaints students with issues of teaching young adolescents and the role of teachers in connecting schools with community resources. Information from current area specialists and exemplary practitioners extend appropriate teaching strategies and supplement background knowledge on special topics related to social, emotional, and physical development related to the curriculum. Prerequisite: CI 462

Rend Lake College Marketplace:

May 30th - June 8th
Monday– Thursday 4:30– 9:30 pm

Carbondale Campus:

July 10th - August 3rd
Monday - Thursday 9:50—Noon

Questions? Check our website at ehs.siu.edu/ci