Dean, College of Education and Human Services

July 2012 to June 30, 2015

Chief academic and fiscal officer. The college has eight academic units offering degrees from baccalaureate to doctorate. The College has a student population of approximately 2,700 undergraduate and 1,220 graduate students. There are approximately 200 Teaching, Research and Graduate Assistants in the college, 215 full-time on campus and off campus faculty members, 86 tenured and tenure track, 129 non-tenure track faculty and a total of more than 580 employees:

- Budget (approximately $13 million): Despite the last two years of the college facing unprecedented budget cuts and because of historical financial practices, we decreased unnecessary debt in the college by streamlining spending and realigning personnel.
- Distance Education Budget (approximately $2.5 million): Largest distance education portfolio (i.e., students enrolled, off campus locations, budget) at the university.
- National Ranking: College ranking increased the last three years with a significant jump in fiscal year 2015 (77th to 59th).
- Fundraising: An increase in gifting from FY13 to FY14 to the college.
- Strategic Plan: Strategic plan initiated and completed during my tenure. Updates provided on college website and presented to college.
- Extramural Funding: College ranked #1 at the university in total extramural funding and training grants.
- Managing grants and contracts: College portfolio includes 70 awards totaling approximately $21 million dollars.
- Students from Underrepresented Groups: From 2012 to 2014, the percentage of students from underrepresented groups increased nine percent. However, in the past year (FY 15) alone, the percentage of students from underrepresented groups enrolled in the college increased 18 percent. ACT Scores: The College's ACT Scores also increased the last three years.
- College Leadership Inclusion. Between 2012 and 2014, the Executive Council (Chairs/Director) in the college increased 23 percent in racial and ethnic representation.
- Gender Representation Increased: From 2012 and 2014, 70 percent of newly hired full-time tenure track faculty members were females.
- Created: Information Technology (IT) Newsletter, College Annual Report and evaluation survey for students to evaluate advisors for better customer service.

Acting Department Chair, Educational Administration and Higher Education, College of Education and Human Services

THE PENNSYLVANIA STATE UNIVERSITY
University Park, Pennsylvania

Faculty Member: Department of Educational Psychology, Counseling, and Special Education
August 1997 to June 2012

- Nationally Ranked Programs: Rehabilitation Counseling Program ranked #4 in nation among 100 programs. Counselor Education Program consistently ranked in top 10 by U.S. News and World Report.
- Faculty Productivity: Consistent top 10 rankings in the country by the Chronicle of Higher Education in terms of faculty scholarly productivity.
- Productive/Efficient: Achieved rank of Professor (Assistant Professor to Professor) in 10 years. Normal to achieve Professor rank from 13 to 16 years at Penn State.
- Taught all three levels (Bachelor, Masters and Doctoral) of students in the department.
- Creative Pedagogy: Courses highly rated by students exiting the department as vital to their personal and professional growth and success when compared to other courses at the university.
- Advised/mentored undergraduate and graduate students in Educational Psychology, Counselor Education, Special Education, Rehabilitation Counseling, Rehabilitation and Human Services, and Psychology.
- Student Recruitment and Retention: Asked to serve on several university, college and departmental committees to improve student recruitment retention for underrepresented populations at the university.

Director, The Africana Research Center
July 2006 to June 2008

A major research center at the university. Responsible for hiring and evaluating 10 professional staff that included faculty members, post-doctoral and dissertation fellows and work study students:

- Budget (approximately $2 million).
- Created Efficiency: A streamlined computerized process for potential Post-Doctoral Fellows to apply to the Africana Research Center. The process improved efficiency about 95% and took one year to implement.
- Collaborated with stakeholders across the university to enhance the interdisciplinary research enterprise of the ARC.
- Fundraising: Developed fundraising initiatives to increase center endowments to fund post-doctoral and other center programs.
- University-Wide Collaborations: Established new alliances that created an identifiable network of faculty and student researchers associated with the Center.

Program Chair, Rehabilitation Programs

July 2002 to June 2006

Served as Program Chair over both the undergraduate (Rehabilitation Services) and graduate programs (Rehabilitation Counseling). The Rehabilitation Program academic unit was made up of 5 full time faculty members, two graduate assistants and two staff members:
