Hannibal Regional Healthcare System
Hannibal MO

New Opportunity! Social Services Worker – Outpatient, Full Time, Monday – Friday, 8a – 5p

- Minimum of a Masters of Social Work (MSW) degree
- Licensed Clinical Social worker (LCSW) preferred

About the Position
Hannibal Regional Medical Group is a rural health clinic attached to Hannibal Regional Hospital. With the growth of our healthcare system’s outpatient medical group, we are seeking an MSW to join our clinic team. Along with the care managers, primary care and medical specialty physicians the MSW will address the psychosocial and social determinants impacting the patient’s health and implement strategies and solutions for positive outcomes. This position will require skill in assessment, counseling, knowledge of community, state and federal programs and resources and the ability to provide professional expertise and consultation to the team. As a new position, there is opportunity to have input in the design of the daily work flow and the creation of target projects within the role.

About Hannibal Regional
The Hannibal Regional team is over 1,000 members strong and is mission-driven, values-based and committed to preserving the vision and legacy of our founders. Our team takes pride in continuing to create and strengthen access to community-based, contemporary healthcare resources for patients, families, and the communities we serve. Hannibal Regional is located on a beautifully appointed medical campus in Hannibal, MO and currently includes Hannibal Regional Hospital, Hannibal Regional Medical Group, Hannibal Regional Foundation, and the James E. Cary Cancer Center. In addition to an ever-widening array of healthcare services on the Hannibal campus, the Hannibal Regional Medical Group (HRMG) and Complete Family Medicine team have locations in smaller communities to help strengthen primary care access throughout the region. HRMG and Complete Family Medicine have community-centric, physician-based clinics in ten communities throughout Northeast Missouri and offer a variety of services at each location.
